Oxford Internet Survey Participant Information Sheet

Ethics approval Reference: SSH OII C1A 19 001.

This survey is being conducted on behalf of Oxford University. It concerns how people live in Britain today and the role of the Internet and technologies in daily life.

You have been selected to be interviewed as part of a representative sample of British adults. You don't have to agree to take part; you can ask me any questions you want before or throughout; you can also withdraw at any time without giving a reason. Your answers will be completely anonymous and no one will be able to personally identify you.

Upon successful completion of your interview we will donate £5 to Oxfam for your participation.

The data collection has been funded by a grant from the government Department for Digital, Culture, Media and Sport.

This research may be published in reports and scientific journals as anonymous statistical summaries.

This research project has been reviewed and approved by the Central Oxford University Research Ethics Committee. If you have a concern, please speak to Dr. Grant Blank (01865 612 336) who will do his best to answer your query. If your concern has not been satisfied or you wish to make a formal complaint, please contact the ethics committee.
